

What is CLA Detroit?

Contemplative Leaders in Action (CLA) is a two-year program for young professionals that integrates leadership development with the tradition of St. Ignatius and the Jesuits. While the program nurtures personal growth, it also develops a cohort of leaders who can bring the dynamics of faith and service to their families, co-workers, and communities.

Who is CLA designed for?

CLA is designed for young adult professionals in their 20s and 30s. Each year 12 to 15 emerging leaders from diverse backgrounds and professions will be invited to participate in this program. Participants will share certain key characteristics including: a capacity for self-reflection, several years of work experience, a personal commitment to serve the common good, demonstrated leadership potential, and the willingness to engage in their own ongoing spiritual and professional growth. Ideal candidates will have a sincere desire to contribute to the development and well-being of others and have a heart for service—particularly for addressing the unmet needs of those in Detroit.

Who is behind CLA?

CLA Detroit is affiliated with the national CLA program of the Jesuit Collaborative, a ministry of the Jesuits of the eastern US. The local Detroit program is offered by “Faith in the D,” a young adult initiative of Saints Peter and Paul Jesuit Church.

How will CLA benefit participants?

The goals of CLA Detroit are:

- ❖ To provide participants with the knowledge and skills required to be leaders in their workplace, communities, and families
- ❖ To provide a safe place for participants to grow in the self-knowledge needed to work well with others
- ❖ To empower participants to use their gifts, talents, skills, and experience to improve the quality of life for others
- ❖ To develop a commitment to serving the unmet needs of those in Detroit
- ❖ To invite participants to explore their spirituality with the resources of the Ignatian tradition

What will participants experience?

- ❖ Reflect on and articulate one’s sense of personal mission
- ❖ Study models of leadership and explore one’s own style
- ❖ Develop supportive relationships with mentors and established professionals
- ❖ Successful completion of a service project in year two
- ❖ Introduction to the Ignatian tradition of prayer, reflection and growth
- ❖ Practice in using Ignatian discernment methods for wise decision-making

What happens in the program?

In general, the CLA program includes:

- ❖ Monthly meetings with presentations from guest speakers on topics ranging from Ignatian spirituality to leadership to Catholic social teaching
- ❖ A commitment to community service
- ❖ An annual retreat
- ❖ Introduction to experienced professionals to discuss the challenges of integrating God in daily life
- ❖ Opportunity for spiritual direction
- ❖ A capstone project in year two

The Contemplative Leaders in Action initiative in Detroit is based on a cohort model with monthly meetings over two years. The group will not meet during the summer months.

What does participation in CLA cost?

Tuition for the two-year program is $500 per year. Some scholarship support may be available.
