CONTEMPLATIVE LEADERS IN ACTION (CLA) – MAY 10

If you are – or know – a young adult (mid 20s to late 30s) who would benefit from this program that integrates Ignatian Spirituality with one's professional and personal life, please email Fr. Gary. Share this link to the Online Information Session Monday, May 10 at 7:30PM. Application deadline is May 31.

COACH BEILEIN WITH JESUIT FRIENDS AND ALUMNI – MAY 11

John Beilein, former coach of University of Michigan men's basketball, will speak on "The impact my Jesuit education has had on my life as a Leader and Coach." The May 11, 12:00 PM luncheon is sold out, but you can Register HERE for the free online Livestream.

You may remember the cover of our last LEGACY issue in Winter 2020 picturing our ciborium being carried during drive-thru communion. It has been lovingly cleaned and polished giving it new life. Thank you Marty Petz for your time and patience in caring for this sacred vessel.

YOUNG ADULTS - FAITH IN THE D

Empowering Young Adults to explore spirituality, serve the city, and develop leadership, in a community of peers: The Jesuit Center for Urban Spirituality.

Social: Campfire in the Courtyard-

Join us after the 11:00 am Sunday Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 23, for a campfire in the church courtyard! We'll have refreshments and supplies for making smores.

Service: Welcome Team-

Friendly people wanted! We are looking for some new members to join our Welcome Team at the parish. Members of the Welcome Team greet worshippers at mass and assist them with finding a seat. For more information contact our Director of Liturgy Julie Ford.
