

How does brunch sound? Come get to know your fellow parishioners at Traffic Jam (511 W Canfield) after the 11:00 Mass on September 22. Brunch and lunch offerings are available starting at $9.00, and parking is free! Please RSVP by September 16 to parishlife@ssppjesuit.org.

At the end of this month, September 29, we will be hosting an Advocacy Sunday. We will have tables at the back of the church after both masses where you can get acquainted with and act on a few of the issues of concern to Catholics today.

October 1 begins this fall's Bible study series on the book of Matthew. You can sign up on the parish website. There is a $10 cost for materials.

In the book Barking to the Choir, Fr. Gregory Boyle, S.J., tells a story of unconditional love in difficult circumstances. Fr. Boyle has been ministering to gang members in Los Angeles for thirty years and has learned much about the love of God from these young men and women. Come join us on November 21 at 7:00 p.m. to discuss this remarkable work.
